We Were Rich and We Didn't Know it

News of the World
By Paulette Jiles.

It is 1870 and Captain Jefferson Kyle Kidd travels through northern Texas, giving live readings to paying audiences hungry for news of the world. He is offered a $50 gold piece to deliver a young orphan to her relatives in San Antonio. Their 400-mile journey south proves difficult and at times dangerous. Arriving in San Antonio, the reunion is neither happy nor welcome. Exquisitely rendered and morally complex, News of the World is a brilliant work of historical fiction that explores the boundaries of family, responsibility, honor, and trust.

Thanks to Roosevelt's Kentucky Pack Horse Library Project, Troublesome's got its very own traveling librarian, Cussy Mary Carter. Cussy's not only a book woman, however, she's also the last of her kind, her skin a shade of blue unlike most anyone else. She's going to have to confront prejudice as old as the Appalachias and suspicion as deep as the holler.
